FORGING RESEARCH COLLABORATIONS WITH JAPAN

Wednesday, October 2, 2019
1:30 – 4 PM, with reception to follow from 4 – 5 PM
University of Toronto, Hart House – Music Room
7 Hart House Circle, Toronto, ON, M5S 3H3

PROGRAM:

Opening Remarks (1:30 – 1:40 PM):
- Professor Ted Sargent, Vice President, International, University of Toronto
- Consul General Takako Ito, Consul General of Japan in Toronto
- Dr. Kohji Hirata, Director of JSPS Washington Office

Research Funding (1:40 – 2:15 PM):
- Learn about funding opportunities for research with/in Japan with representatives from JSPS, MITACS, NSERC

Centre for the Study of Global Japan (2:15 – 2:40 PM):
- Professor Phillip Lipsy, Director of CSGJ presents on the Centre’s vision for collaborating with Japan

Panel Discussion on Research Collaborations with Japan (2:40 – 3:50 PM):
- Discussion with U of T faculty on collaborating with Japan. Panelists include:
  - Professor Charles Boone (Molecular Genetics)
  - Professor Wai Tung Ng (Electrical and Computer Engineering)
  - Professor Andre Sorensen (Human Geography)
- Moderated by Professor Chris Yip, Dean of Faculty of Applied Science & Engineering

Closing Remarks (3:50 – 4 PM)

Reception (4 – 5 PM)

RSVP BY SEPTEMBER 20 to tak.koguchi@utoronto.ca